SPECIAL TANK DEALS!

LEMAN RUSS CONQUEROR
(Leman Russ assault variant)

CONQUEROR RESIN TURRET KIT
(To be added to Leman Russ plastic kit)

By the divine light of the Emperor, the forge worlds of the Adeptus Mechanicus have been toiling day and night to provide valiant Imperial Guard tank commanders with new, improved armoured vehicles with which to bring humanity's crusade to the dread enemies of the Imperium!

• The Black Library will be producing a number of fine resin-cast supplement pieces for your plastic tank kits.

• These will be conversion kits for our existing range of vehicles so you will need the plastic tank kit first.

• The full rules and the Mail Order coupon for each of the resin kits will only appear in the Citadel Journal – the models are available EXCLUSIVELY to Journal readers and visitors to Games Worshop events (see the list above), and will only be available for a limited period.

• We will be kicking off with the awesome 'CONQUEROR', Leman Russ assault turret (above) in Journal 32 – so get yer orders in! Plans have already been drawn up for the mighty Leman Russ Vanquisher, the king of all tanks; the Salamander command tank, every Imperial commander's dream; and the aptly named Destroyer tank hunter, the nearest you're gonna get to a Warhammer 40,000 scale Shadowsword (well, for now!). There will be many others just as soon as we've got them finished!

If you're itching to know more, then write to us here at the Black Library for further details and prices (including a stamped, self-addressed envelope):

RAVENWING CONVERSIONS

- Assemble the bike as normal but not the rider.
- Take your Chaplain model and then using a razor saw or modelling knife, carefully cut him in half just below the waistline.
- Place a small pin on the underside of the Chaplain's torso with a matching hole on the biker's legs.
- Now for the Green Stuff (practice required!). Mix, following the instructions, then form a small rectangle about 1cm wide by 4cm long and 3mm deep (rolling it out with a paint brush works well).

CODE: T18 SERG

FIRST GREEN STUFF SHAPE

SECOND GREEN STUFF SHAPE

CODE: T18 CHAP

- Holding the centre of the Green Stuff rectangle between your fingers, pull the sides back to form a chevron shape.
- You should now have three parts: the two halves of the Chaplain and the Green Stuff. Carefully apply glue to the bottom of the Chaplain's torso and then place the Green Stuff onto the glued area. Now place the two pieces onto the biker's legs.
- Place the whole Chaplain onto the bike and gently smooth the Green Stuff back, allowing it to crease as you do so. This will make the folds of the Chaplain's robes.
- Repeat the same procedure exactly for the Veteran Sergeant.

And there you have it – a great Chaplain and Veteran Sergeant on bikes.

GET THESE GREAT CONVERSIONS FOR £9 each (Requires Green Stuff)

RECOMMENDED FOR ADVANCED MODELLERS ONLY

Green Stuff is not recommended for persons under 14 years.

Not recommended for children under 8 years due to small parts and essential pointed components. All models supplied unpainted.

The 'Magus'

Meet our Trolls:

Phone Troll Steve (old bloke) is going steady with his Tyranid horde. He is fabled for his cunning plans that never really seem to work! He has several Dwarf armies for Warhammer, as well as an awesome number of points for Epic which include Squats (oh dear!). His other hobbies are Rikki Lake and gardening. His favourite colour is blue.

| TOTAL: | 1,496pts |

1,500pts of Dwarfs by yesterday? Yessir, Mr Boss Troll. My pleasure. Us Trolls work better without sleep... but seriously though, the biggest problem in picking an army is choosing from the vast range of miniatures available! I like to base my armies around particular themes, so I decided that this would be an expedition to reclaim an old mine.

If you're trekking down a mine, you'll need three things: Iron Breakers (even after all these years Aly Morrison and Colin Dixon's models are still awesome), Troll Slayers (in this case, the old Norse Dwarf Slayers) are essential and then of course Miners. For me Miners are a must because I simply defy anyone not to love these little gems from the Perry twins: you can almost smell the sweat!

I also chose a regiment of Warriors with spears and one regiment of Handgunners to hold the mine entrance. These models are a godsend as they can either have a plug-in spear, handgun or crossbow! You just can't go wrong.

To finish I chose a second unit of Warriors with hand weapons and my favourite - the Goblobber! Sadly, it doesn't have the old special rules but is still a great stand-in for the big stone throwers to help bolster the mine entrance defences.

With each deal you will receive four dead Dwarfs FREE!

DEAL ONE - £47

The Children of Thirteen

ANDY HALL'S SKAVEN ARMY (T18 SKAV 1)

Andy never got 'disco'

Meet our Trolls:

Andy, one of our elite picker Trolls, has been into the hobby for a while (he can't remember). He has a mild attraction to the Dark Eldar but a serious relationship with the Sisters of Battle. As well as his Skaven army he has a modest Empire army which he likes to look at instead of playing with. Andy's hobbies include dancing – specialising in disco – gardening and worrying old ladies. His favourite colour is also blue. he also likes pink. lots of pink.

| | |
|---|---|
| 1 Skaven Warlord | 90pts |
| 1 Warlock champion | 118pts |
| 24 Plague Monks (Inc. standard bearer) | 225pts |
| 7 Censer Bearers | 105pts |
| 1 Plague Monk champion | 76pts |
| 15 Gutter Runners | 255pts |
| 6 Poison Globadiers | 120pts |
| 18 Clanrats (Inc. standard bearer) | 155.5pts |
| 2 Jezzail teams | 68pts |
| 2 Warpfire Thrower teams | 140pts |
| 1 Doomwheel | 150pts |
| TOTAL: | 1,502.5pts |

Andy's Skaven horde is another good example of a themed army. Andy decided to complement Steve's Dwarfs by choosing a force that had taken the Grunhelms' family mine.

"I really like some of the old models designed by Jes Goodwin. The weapons are smaller than the new plastics and for me small weapons make sense in a confined area like mine shafts and tunnels."

If the Doomwheel seems out of place Andy shrugs it off with a wry grin:

"Well, it's for those large Dwarf caverns; well, actually it's to wreck that blasted Goblobber... honest." (8mm)

It seems that Andy's favourite tactics are a healthy diet of warpstone and lots of kill-kill-kill, which Andy assures us will be the end of those pesky Dwarfs.

So if you're choosing an army, combine our fantastic new plastics with some old and characterful models. Check out the old catalogues in your local store. The result will be an excellent and unique looking army with a definite 'campaign' feel.
